Everyone is aware that the Internet has drastically influenced our hobby in the past decade. Still, quality material is hard to come by and the need for Stamp Bourses and Shows is higher than ever. Stamp collectors are “show me” type folks who want to see and touch the stamps and covers before buying. Do you know anyone who regularly sends $1500, $10,000 or more before holding and examining an item themselves? The few I do know only deal like this with those dealers personally known to them for many years. Remember, it’s always easier to do business face to face than any other way.

SHOW LOCATION, DATES & TIMES

LaQuinta Inn, 2610 Williams Blvd., Kenner, La. 70062
Two day Show January 6th & 7th
Friday: 10:00am to 6:00pm
Saturday: 10:00am to 7:00pm

Setup allowed starting at 4:00pm on Thursday.
Breakdown starts when the show closes, 7:00pm Saturday

As a matter of courtesy and professionalism, I ask that bourse tables be staffed and open for business for all the hours of the show. We always have people arrive early on the first day and show up late on the last day of the show. Although each dealer is responsible for his own stamps and their security, as a courtesy, I will remain in the Show Room at all times we are closed for business. The hotel has offered us a discounted room rate for dealer guests. Please let the front desk clerk know when you check in. Advertising will be done in Linn’s Stamp News, the New Orleans & Baton Rouge Newspapers and local stamp clubs for a 150 mile radius. We have a 1500 name “mail list” of collectors who will receive an advertising postal card. I shall attempt to arouse interest with radio and TV ads between Christmas and New Year’s Day, as we did last year. Thanks in advance for your help. We look forward to seeing you.

Kindest Regards,
Ed Jatho
